The parties will be directed to the appropriate courtroom at that time.

NOTICE: A child should not be brought to the Courthouse to be present during a Court proceeding except in the circumstance that the child is to be interviewed by the Judge in chambers or unless the child's presence is otherwise required for the Court proceeding. Whenever a child is brought to the Courthouse, it is the responsibility of the party who brings the child to arrange for appropriate care and supervision of the child outside of the courtroom and judicial offices. The duties of Court personnel do not permit them to perform this function.

Communication with the Court

The parties are advised that since this is an open Title IV-D case, the State is an interested party; therefore the State must be endorsed on all matters pertaining to child support and must also be served with any petitions that involve child support.

A party cannot engage in any ex parte communication with the Court (i.e., communication directed to the Court without knowledge of the other party). Therefore, for the Court to consider any request, all copies of any correspondence must be provided to the opposing parties.

Your pleading/motion must also tell the judicial officer the following:

- That the motion/pleading was filed with the Clerk of the Court.
- That the motion/pleading was mailed/delivered to the judicial officer assigned to this action, as well as the date the motion/pleading was delivered to the judicial officer assigned to this action.
- The date you delivered a copy of the motion to the other parties.
- The address to which the copy was sent to the other parties.
- Whether the delivery was by mail or by hand.

NOTE: If the above instructions are not followed, the pleading/motion will be rejected and not considered by the Court and will subject the filing party to re-filing their request.

All parties representing themselves must keep the Court updated with address changes. A form may be downloaded at: <http://www.superiorcourt.maricopa.gov/SuperiorCourt/Self-ServiceCenter/index.asp>
